Scribe—Guess?

I know that one of the hares who used to be an old time hasher got a hash injection recently and so was eager to set a hash run and has been attending most of the hash since the start of the year.....off course....accompanied by the usual bunch of lovely ladies. The consultant we knew was going to give us hills and hills as this seems to be his preferred terrain and training ground. Heading to Lopinot, no traffic, easy drive and the lush vegetation complemented the rather relaxing drive to the run site. We arrived one by one until it was actually 3.30 and the parking was limited. The turn out was good and we assembled at the bar which was the run site with a local DJ playing in anticipation of a good after lime at the bar. The HM called the run to order and with the regular instructions by the hares to include the introduction of one local. Ah hear they found this hare when they got lost receeding so was in anticipation of what was to come. Ah also heard that a particular hare had to have couple rest stops to catch his breath on the reccee.....he up the hill and found it was too far.....he learnt that reccee is a tough job. We started the run and the wrong way.....going to the traditional spot where a hare pointed, by the river and it was tempting and was on on and then X.....and another X.

“We are a DRINKING club with a RUNNING problem..”

NEXT RUN: 3rd August, 2013

- Blanchisseuse Village North Coast—From Maraval passing Maracas Bay, La Fillet Village and into Blanchisseuse Village. Look out for the Roman Catholic Church on the left side of the road. Approx 100m after the RC church, there is a major junction. Carry straight over (DO NOT TURN RIGHT). Drive for approx. 1KM to Marianne Car-Park on the left side.

The Hares—Always happy to welcome new hashers

And.....even Slim had a good run

The Run

We eventually had to head back through the community and actually do a reverse run from the last one I remembered. The sign of some tired hashers showed early as some were frustrated and anxious to get going....too much checks to find the run but it was eventually a long winding way up the hill but felt good for those wanting to burn off some calories. The trail was interesting and the signs of the local hare was evident as we went through some areas we have not been before up and down through some very narrow trails, some looked very virgin so the local hare did some work. The run?.....walk?.... was now flowing very nicely and the pack had already split into about three as the hills took a toll on most but for the calories sake, I kept going with a few others in front. About 75 minutes gone and no sign of the ON IN?.....it was a second beer stop with "Rum boy" and "Hearty" having a beer casually sitting at the side of the road....what the hell!... and we saw a female hare at the corner pointing us to her right.....and it was on to the road so we anticipated the ON IN close.....so we ran and ran and ran.....But X.....oh shit! ....what the hell....we had to turn left and it was ON ON again until we saw two front hares stupesing.....calling back check and the female hare asking us the run time and if we wanted to do the full run or head in. It was only about 8 of us anyway and we decided to do the full run and so we headed up the hill again onto the other side along the river and there was the ON IN.....on the river bank next to the main road....a sign of relief.....we are in.....but wait? Most hashers already in? .....they did not make the full run. The pack took one hour and fifty minutes to do the full run. The hashers were eagerly awaiting the announcement that the food is ready.....boy....some real good Arabic food....our Arab hash brother always do his best! .....a hasher true and true!

THE POOFTER

And it was Candice for POOFTER

Candice was the hash
model with her pomp pomp shorts and fancy
earring.

POOFTER— Candice

And then it was the down down....the hares had their usual down down and then the virgins.....wow....about 15 of them saying who made them come and enjoyed it. One female virgin also claimed that a male friend forced her to come....and yes he was called to defend it. We had a few new shoes, mainly virgins who got instructions to wear a new shoes by their hash friend so they had the usual beer out of the shoes.

Virgins: Leanne, Mohan, Niruka, Radica, Laura, Vasthi, Sandra, Mercedes, Tricia, Mick, Alicia, Safraz, Angie, Rob, Jenna

New Shoes: Mohan, Sheldon, Jessie & Rob

POOFTER Nominees: Radica, Shereen, Candice and Rob

The poofter was a classic....we had one virgin who stopped and pick every fruit on the run....asking a local man to pick one for her and so she was not focused on the run but the fruits. A virgin was so hot that she used a man pipe to soak himself down and left the man's pipe running?.....and then a lovely hasher who seems to be in the fashion business, with some shorts that had the men dribbling and earrings suited for a formal engagement.....not for hashing. Of course.....she got the poofter....she was the hashers favorite at the start and they cheered her on....she wore the dirty poofter shirt and drank a beer out of the potty..... A hasher true and true!
