Well what can I say about this run other than how did I get stuck writing the trash for this run. Alright well here goes... Like most runs it started with a little road and easy terrain but then worked itself into series of hardcore bush vines HILL!!!! Yuh couldn't even move freely unless yuh wanted to trip and send everyone down like dominoes (which had crossed my mind at one point). Oh god and doh talk for dem pine leaves. All dry and slippery slip an trip shudda be the name of this run.

It's almost hilarious though how some runners tried to do what appeared to be bush swimming as they attempted to pass the crowd going up one dem long hills. What else amused me was seeing – Guy who drives to fast in his hilux- dive into a passing river at one point and said, "Ahh Yeah winnings not everything!"

The hares were usually present at certain check points as we passed some locals smoking some joints and I swear the way some people was carrying on they had to be high too.

Coming nearer to home stretch was another tediously long hill going up until we came to a check at which they were but two options go up the hill or go down the hill when one of the GoPros said that he's too tired to go check what if it were an X (Poofter)

As it turned out down was the right way to go I mean the hares weren't that mean. Running down the long ass hill just before a dumped fridge made a left into a valley where your truly took a long awaited pee.

The On-In finally not too long again and home sweet home... The bar. Props goes out to the hares who came together and made this run possible On On!

HM's Hiatus

A great sendoff run as pointed out by the lead hare. Good territory for hash use – several mountain climbs and lots of road. The down-downs were conducted in as raucous conditions as ever. Hashers thoroughly enjoyed the hospitality provided by the owner of the establishment. They wine and dance for a few hours well. An excellent job by the hares in putting on this hash – Well done... On On
